

Adam Rosenthal KC Called 1999 Silk 2020

Practice Summary

Adam is an experienced property litigator whose practice encompasses all aspects of real property and landlord and tenant-related litigation and advice. He is a persuasive advocate with vast courtroom experience at all levels, including the High Court and the Court of Appeal. He also has considerable experience of arbitration (as an advocate and as arbitrator or legal assessor). He gives clear, commercial, strategic and practical advice.

- Recent commercial landlord and tenant work includes substantial dilapidations claims, renewals under the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954, service charge disputes and rent review arbitrations. He is also instructed in high-value residential landlord and tenant disputes, including service charges, RTM and leasehold enfranchisement cases.
- Adam has particular experience in disputes relating to the sale and development of land, including rights to light issues, the interpretation of contracts for sale and development / promotion agreements, options, rights of pre-emption, joint venture agreements / Pallant v Morgan trusts, overage, rectification claims, and proprietary estoppel. Disputes also often involve land registration and title issues and advising on and litigating about easements and restrictive covenants (including applications under s.84 of the Law of Property Act 1925).
- In recent years, Adam has built up an expertise in relation to the Building Safety Act 2022 and has acted in a number of claims for remediation orders and remediation contribution orders and he frequently lectures on this developing area of law.
- As a contributor to the leading textbook on mortgages, he often acts in cases relating to secured lending, including claims by or against receivers.
- Adam is often instructed in property-related professional negligence claims (and recently appeared in the Court of Appeal in the leading case on negligence claims against valuers).
- A substantial part of his practice involves cases which concern property-related insolvency matters, often appearing before ICC Judges in the High Court.
- Many of Adam's cases involve complex valuation issues.
