Practice Summary

Edith, a psychology graduate with an MBA spent time in various management positions in industry before coming to work at the Bar. She started her clerking career as First Junior at 4 Pump Court, and then moved to Goldsmith Building where she was Senior Clerk for seven years. She joined Falcon Chambers in January 2000.

She is a past Co-Chair of the Legal Practice Management Association and a past member of the Professional Standards and Access to the Bar Committees of the Bar Council and the Legal Services Commission's Quality Mark Liaison Committee and the Bar Standards Board Quality Assurance Committee. She is a member of the Managing Partners Forum Advisory Board.

Edith is responsible for the overall operation of Chambers, its strategic development, service delivery, marketing and the practice development of the individual members of chambers.

In her spare time, when not at her desk or in front of her laptop, Edith enjoys the challenge (?) of playing golf, cycling and the occasional game of curling. She can also be regularly found socialising at some well-known London restaurants!
