

Gwyneth Everson Called 2023

Practice Summary

Gwyneth accepts instructions in all areas of landlord and tenant law and real property, including residential, commercial and agricultural law. Before coming to the Bar, Gwyneth worked as a social housing paralegal. She was supervised during pupillage by Julia Petrenko, Camilla Chorfi, Joseph Ollech and Mark Galtrey.

- Education
 - Graduate Diploma in Law, City University of London - Distinction
 - BA Classics, St Hilda's College, University of Oxford - First Class
 - St Hilda's College Prize for Classics
- Professional
 - Bar Vocational Studies, City Law School - Distinction
 - Sir Thomas More Scholarship, Lincoln's Inn
 - Member of the Property Bar Association