Falcon Chambers

Hamish Fraser

Called 2025

Practice Summary

Hamish joined chambers as a tenant in October 2026 after completion of his pupillage. He is developing a practice across all areas of commercial and residential property law.

During pupillage Hamish gained experience of a broad range of work, including:

- Business tenancy renewals
- Civil fraud
- Development agreements
- Easements
- Forfeiture
- Highways and infrastructure
- Land registration
- Mortgages, including FCA regulation
- Possession proceedings, both residential and commercial
- Restrictive covenants
- Telecommunications
- The Building Safety Act 2022
- Trespass and adverse possession

Before joining Falcon, Hamish studied Classics with an organ scholarship at New College, Oxford. He completed the GDL and BVS courses with distinction at City Law School.

Outside of practice, he enjoys cycling and hiking and plays the piano and organ.

Learn more about Hamish in the introductory video below.

Education

- BA Classics, New College, University of Oxford
- Graduate Diploma in Law, City Law School
- Bar Vocational Studies, City Law School

Professional

- Bar Vocational Studies, City Law School
- Jules Thorn Scholarship, Middle Temple
- Member of the Property Bar Association