Practice Summary

Kavish Shah joined Chambers in January 2021 after successfully completing pupillage. During pupillage Kavish was supervised by Tamsin Cox, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Kester Lees, Stephanie Tozer QC and Cecily Crampin.

As a pupil, he gained experience of the full range of Chambers' work, working on cases concerning, amongst other areas: landlord and tenant disputes, telecoms (primarily operator), restrictive covenants, easements, nuisance, receivership and adverse possession.

Kavish recently appeared in the High Court, led by Paul Letman, in a case involving an account of rent, management fees, and an occupational charge.

Kavish accepts instructions in all areas of real property and landlord and tenant law.
