- Recent cases

On Tower UK Limited v AP Wireless II (UK) Limited ("Lupton Road"): Taylor appeared as junior counsel for the operator in a three-day preliminary issue trial in respect of nine telecommunications sites.

Cornish v The Great Sanders House Management Company Ltd: Taylor acted for the successful freeholder in a trial before the First-tier Tribunal (Residential Property) concerning the reasonableness of service charges.

Morion 1 Ltd and Morion 2 Ltd v Daly: Taylor acted for the successful Claimants in a three-day, multi-track trial of a claim to possession of premises let on an assured shorthold tenancy, which raised various issues relating to disrepair, the service of notices, and principles of agency law.

University of London v Harvie-Clark and others [2024] EWHC 2895 (Ch): Taylor, led by Kester Lees KC, acted for the successful Claimant. Mr Justice Thompsell granted a precautionary interim injunction restraining three named Defendants and persons unknown from undertaking various protest activities on land belonging to the University of London.

University of London v Harvie-Clark and others: Taylor, led by Kester Lees KC, acted for the successful Claimant. Deputy Master Rhys granted possession orders in respect of various parcels of land which had been occupied by protestors.

Santander UK plc v Custance: Taylor acted for the successful lender in the trial of a claim to possession of mortgaged premises following the expiry of the term of an interest-only mortgage. The claim raised issues surrounding the extent to which a mortgagee is obliged to take steps to redeem life assurance and endowment policies.

Old Street Retail Trustee (Jersey) 1 Ltd and Old Street Retail Trustee (Jersey) 2 Ltd v Argos Ltd: Taylor was led by Stephen Jourdan KC in a three-day High Court trial involving the construction of a covenant in commercial lease to use premises only for such non-food retail use within Class A1 of Use Classes Order as landlord shall approve – specifically, whether the retail tenant was permitted to sell goods both to visiting customers and those who order online for delivery elsewhere. The case settled after trial.

EE Ltd v Snowdonia National Park Authority: Taylor was briefed in the trial of an application under paragraph 20 of the Electronic Communications Code. The case settled mid-trial.

Bank of Scotland plc v Tomlinson: Taylor acted for the successful mortgagee in a two-day, multi-track trial before Her Honour Judge Brown sitting at Canterbury County Court. The claim for unlawful forfeiture raised various issues, including the scope and application of ss.166 and 167 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.

Barnard v Brandon & Others [2023] EWHC 3043 (Ch): Taylor, led by Cecily Crampin, acted for the successful Fourth Defendant. Both Taylor and Cecily appeared pro bono and were instructed via Advocate. The claim arose out of an order made on a previous fraudulent misrepresentation claim and involved issues of construction of court orders, trust law, mortgagee sale to self, and sale at an undervalue.

In June 2023, Taylor was briefed as junior counsel, being led by Ciara Fairley, in a high value (£5m+) family farming proprietary estoppel dispute. The case, which was listed for a two-week trial with evidence from 33 lay witnesses and 5 expert witnesses, settled shortly before trial.

Khanna v 65 Priory Road Ltd: Taylor acted for the successful freeholder in a two-day trial before the First-tier Tribunal (Residential Property) concerning the reasonableness of service charges over a seven-year period.
